

University of Colorado Denver

CU IN THE CITY

School of Education &
Human Development

Academic Advising:

The School of Education & Human Development has two undergraduate advisors. Your advisor is assigned based on your major; below is advisor contact information along with a breakdown of majors they advise:

Rosalinda Martinez

Rosalinda.Martinez@ucdenver.edu

Human Development & Family Relations

Special Education

NxtGEN Teacher Education Students

Miriam Cummings

Miriam.Cummings@ucdenver.edu

Elementary Education

Early Childhood Education

Secondary Education

Click here to meet your Advisor.

To schedule an advising appointment call 303-315-6308 or go to Navigate and click on “Get Assistance.”

Degree Audit and Degree Requirements:

- You can access your degree audit in UCDAccess:
 - UCDAccess > Degree Audit Tools > Degree Audit > Run Declared Programs > View Audit
 - Keep in mind that the degree audit is only a tool, and you should connect with your academic advisor regularly to ensure accuracy and degree progress.
- You can view degree requirements and a generalized 4-year graduation plan here.

Advising Commitment:

- Individualized Semester-by-Semester Plans of Study
- Support troubleshooting university policies & processes
- Referral to support resources
- Response & Communication

CU Denver Student Resources

School of Education & Human Development Student Resources